

On course to be a live wire

by Mary Morgan

BARRY Hunt, a petty officer in the Navy for 23 years, is among those it has helped. Six years ago, at the age of 39, Mr Hunt was told he would be dead within a year if he did not tackle his alcoholism.

After seeking help for the problem he took an electrical domestic installation course at New Career Skills' Chandler's Ford base and has now started his own business.

'I've turned my whole life around, really, in six years. It's a complete life change,' he said.

'It's a part of having the courage to do something. Going through the course has given me the confidence.'